SCOUTING
CHANGES LIVES

Each year, our OA Lodge sponsors the Leadership Development Conference (LDC). The 2008 conference will be held November 22nd and will bring together scouts from all over the Cascade Pacific Council for a day-long training event. This awesome leadership training event is open to any scout 13 years and older, and preferably First Class rank or higher. The location is currently TENTATIVELY planned for again for LaSalle High School (11199 S.E. Fuller Road, Milwaukie, Oregon), and the fee is $10.00. Registration opens at 8:00 AM, with the conference starting at 9:00 and ending by 4:00 PM.

Imagine the best trainers, hand-picked from throughout our council, teaching you how to be a more effective leader, build stronger teams, know and use your resources, better manage your time, communicate more effectively, and motivate others. That's what LDC is all about! Oh, and having a lot of fun while we're at it. This year's conference will focus on the Four E's of Leadership: Envision, Enable, Empower and Enthuse.

The conference is again being presented by the Order of the Arrow, but participants do not need to be a member of the OA to attend (although full scout uniform and adhering to the high ideals of scouting are a must). We're looking for today's – and tomorrow's – junior leaders. Adult Scouters are also welcome, by the way, gaining valuable knowledge about how to better work with youth leaders! You can register by mail (see form below), at the Scout Office, or online at www.cpcbsa.org/register to reserve spaces for your unit.

Plan on wearing full uniform and bring lots of energy for a great day of training. If you have questions or would like more information, visit the scout office or our lodge website. Please contact our event Chairman Joe Loseke or our Lodge Adviser: Brad Harris at brad@oa-442.org (503-539-8921).
